

Alex Willow

Alex Willow's musical career was sparked by a simple and true love for storytelling. What began as words written in blue ink grew into intimate lyrics that came to life on his debut EP, "Willow." A 21-year-old singer-songwriter from Florida, Alex creates indie-folk ballads that evoke the artistry of Conan Gray and Elliot Smith.

His latest single, "Adolescence," layers delicate guitar, wistful vocals and powerful synths as he transitions into a fuller sound, guided by the same fearless honesty making Alex Willow a dynamic emerging artist.
